

India–US Trade Deal Highlights: Following an agreement between PM Modi and President Trump, India has reportedly committed to purchasing $100 billion worth of US products annually for five years. Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal stated the deal excludes sensitive sectors like dairy and agriculture to protect Indian farmers.